

MANAGER'S ROLES

What is a Manager?

- one that manages
- a person who conducts business or household affairs
- a person whose work or profession is management

What are the Roles of a Manager?

A manager has a lot of roles but we can group it into three main functions, namely:

1. Interpersonal Roles
2. Informational Roles
3. Decision-Making Roles

Cast:

Manager- Mary Rose Catoto

Customer-Marie Joyce Mandilag

Supplier-Richelle Latayon

Subordinate-Jhoanna Mae Lopez

C/o video-Lailani Diane Perez

Interpersonal Roles

1. Leadership Role
 - Respect= Trust and enhanced self esteem
2. Figurehead Role
 - building a good relationship with subordinates and customers = Good Expectations
3. Liaison Role
 - Interactions= Cooperation

Informational Roles

Communication Roles

1. Monitor Role

-monitored info=

Mutual Understanding

2. Disseminator Role

-correct distribution of info=

Common Knowledge

3. Spokesperson Role

-info to all= Same perceptive

Decision-Making Roles

Decision-Making Roles

1. Entrepreneurship Role
 - organized business=
 - Better future for the business
2. Resource Allocator Role
 - good distribution of resources=
 - Good Business

Decision-Making Roles

3. Disturbance Handler Role

-right handling of crises=

Lesser Damages to the Org

4. Negotiator Role

-excellent negotiations=

Trust and good partnership

To Sum it all:

M-onitors, Disseminates and a Spokesperson

A- Leader

N-egotiator

A- Figurehead

G-ood Liaison

E-nterpreneur

R-esource Allocator and Disturbance Handler

Presented to you by:

Catoto, Mary Rose

Lopez, Jhoanna Mae

Mandilag, Marie Joyce

Perez, Lailani Diane

Latayon Richelle

Thank you... 😊

